TAYLOR'S POSTGRADUATE RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIPS

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Scholarships listed are for 2027 intakes only.
2. Scholarships are applicable for studies conducted at Taylor's University in Malaysia only.
3. Meeting the eligibility criteria does not guarantee the award of a scholarship. Scholarships are awarded on a competitive basis, with eligible applicants shortlisted based on their academic background, curriculum vitae (CV), and research experience and achievements. Shortlisted candidates will be invited to attend an interview. Scholarship awards are subject to the selection panel's recommendation and final university approval.
4. The scholarship is a fee waiver; it is not exchangeable for cash, is non-transferable and non-refundable. Upon recipient successfully graduating (Taylor's Graduate Research Scholarship recipients), Taylor's University or any other institutions under Taylor's Education Group shall be the first choice of employment for two (2) years unless the Faculty waives this employment right (consent not to be unreasonably withheld).
5. The Research Support Allowance is provided to support approved research activities, including conferences and consumables. It is not automatically granted and requires the recipient to submit an application with supervisor endorsement and subsequent approval.
6. Taylor's scholarships generally do not cover fees such as the International Security Deposit, International Student Annual Fee, International Student Course Fees Surcharge, International Student Enrolment Fee, EMGS Visa Application Fee, International Student Charge Hospitalisation and Surgical Insurance Fee, EMGS Renewal Fee or any other Visa-related Fees except for Taylor's Graduate Research Scholarship, Taylor's Scholar Award and Taylor's Industry Nexus Scholarship recipients. Please refer to annexure B of your award letter for details on the fees covered.
7. Recipients are entitled to only one (1) type of scholarship/bursary/award/waiver/discount at any one time, including sponsorships from external institutions/bodies. Recipients must inform the Higher Degrees by Research Committee of any scholarships or sponsorships currently held or awarded at a later date. In the event that a scholarship recipient accepts any external scholarship or sponsorship, the disbursement of the scholarship awarded by Taylor's University will cease immediately. Should the recipient later choose to withdraw from or lose eligibility for the external scholarship/sponsorship for any reason, the original scholarship from Taylor's University will not be reinstated. Failure by the recipient to disclose any scholarship or sponsorship as required under this Clause shall constitute a breach of the scholarship terms and may result in the withdrawal and termination of the scholarship awarded by Taylor's University, without further liability on the part of Taylor's University. Any scholarship amounts disbursed to the recipient to which the recipient was not entitled as a result of such non-disclosure may be subject to recovery by Taylor's University.
8. Effective 1 July 2025, a 6% Service Tax will be imposed on non-Malaysian citizens, applicable to all fees and charges related to education services, except International Security Deposit and EMGS application fees. Fees shown in the Fee Schedule are exclusive of the 6% Service Tax. The Service Tax rate and taxable fee components are subject to change as determined by government regulations.
9. In accordance with prevailing Malaysian tax regulations, Service Tax (if applicable) shall be imposed on the amount of taxable fees and charges after the deduction of any scholarships, bursaries, awards, or discounts. All non-Malaysian citizens shall bear this tax liability in full. Recipients are advised to factor in the applicable Service Tax when calculating the net amount payable to Taylor's University.
10. If the recipient does not accept the scholarship offered by the stipulated date, it will automatically be withdrawn and no longer be deemed valid. No appeal is allowed.
11. The scholarship shall be revoked if any of the following occur:
    i. The recipient defers their semester or intake
    ii. The recipient falls under the Academic Probation (AP) category (e.g. fails a core or elective module, or is unable to achieve a satisfactory status in their progress report)
    iii. Fails to progress according to the approved timeline for thesis proposal evaluation.

    Recipients who fall into Academic Probation for the first time will be granted a one-time opportunity to retain their scholarship if there are academic or other reasons that necessitated the delay. This opportunity is granted only once throughout the entire duration of their programme.
12. The scholarship offer is valid for the standard duration of the stipulated course and is non-transferable.
13. The scholarship does not cover repeat attempts of subjects and thesis examinations and the fees chargeable for any retake or repeat will be borne by the recipients.
14. Scholarship recipients understand and accept the responsibility of being an exemplary student at Taylor's University. Recipients must recognise that their behaviour and general conduct must, at all times, be above reproach, and comply with all existing rules, regulations, requirements and policies of Taylor's University. Recipients should not be involved, engaged in or participate in any politic, illegal or unlawful activity as a recipient of the scholarship whether within or outside the University premises.
15. All Taylor's Graduate Research Scholarship recipients are expected to participate in the assigned Professional Development Programme during their scholarship period and to contribute to the university's academic or research activities. Recipients are expected to contribute four (4) hours per week (Doctor of Philosophy recipients), or two (2) hours per week (Master's by Research recipients), of assigned professional development activities. These activities include training and other assigned academic or research activities that enhance their scholarly experience. Participation in professional development activities does not confer an employment relationship or teaching designation under Private Higher Educational Institutions Act 1996.
16. Upon accepting this scholarship, the recipient is deemed to have accepted all terms and conditions stipulated. The recipient also agrees to indemnify and hold Taylor's harmless of and from any demands, claims, liabilities or actions of any kind whatsoever.
17. Scholarship recipients are not allowed to defer their semesters. If the recipient defers the semester, the scholarship shall be automatically terminated. However, should the recipient request a deferment due to any substantial reason backed by the supervisor or school, his/her scholarship may be retained, subject to the absolute discretion of the Higher Degrees by Research Committee.
18. All decisions by Taylor's University are final, and no further appeals shall be entertained.
19. Taylor's University reserves the right to involve the scholarship recipients in interviews, advertisement, photography or any other publicity-related or promotional activities. By accepting the scholarship, the recipient acknowledges and consents to such participation and to the use of their name, image and/or likeness for such purposes, without further compensation.
20. The recipient acknowledges and consents to comply with the regulations by Taylor's University covering the Programme in which the scholarship recipient is enrolled, including progression, reporting and examination.
21. All materials and works created (at any point), developed or authored by recipients in the course of activities undertaken under this award letter (the "Work Product"), and all copyright and other rights of any kind in the Work Product, shall be the exclusive property of Taylor's University.
22. Taylor's University may terminate the scholarship awarded at any time during the scholarship period by giving three (3) months' notice in writing to the recipient, without assigning any reasons therefore and thereupon all benefits to the recipient under this Contract absolutely determines and no actions shall be brought or maintained by one party against the other.
23. Scholarship recipients must produce the minimum number of accepted research outputs specific to their award, in any combination of:
    i. journal articles accepted for publication in Scopus indexed and/or Clarivate indexed journals;
    ii. policy papers formally accepted by a recognised policy making body; or
    iii. IP filings (patent, utility innovation, or registered copyright, as applicable to the discipline) accepted at the filing stage, evidenced by an official filing acknowledgement.

    The Scopus/Clarivate indexing condition applies to journal articles only.
    The research output requirement must be directly related to the student's thesis research topic or area, produced during the study period, with the student as main/first author (where more than one research output is required, the student must be main/first author on at least one), and must list Taylor's University, Malaysia as the first affiliation.
24. This sponsorship shall be acknowledged in all research outputs resulting from the Research using the following: "This work was supported by Taylor's University through its TAYLOR'S RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP Programme."
25. The parties hereby mutually agree that in the event the recipient wishes to retake the entire programme due to failure to obtain the requisite qualification on the first instance, the recipient may do so at the recipient's own expense. Taylor's University shall not be liable for any fees and/or other expenses that may be due and payable.
26. The terms and conditions of scholarships may be modified and amended from time to time as deemed appropriate by Taylor's University.
27. The recipient agrees to comply with all terms and conditions stipulated in the "Postgraduate (Research) Supplementary Handbook".
28. This Award letter together with its Annexure constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties concerning the subject.

TAYLOR'S POSTGRADUATE (TAUGHT) SCHOLARSHIP

1. Scholarships listed are applicable for 2027 intakes and for selected programmes only.
2. Scholarships are applicable for all Malaysian or International students that hold academic results from any accredited institution in Malaysia and Malaysians from selected overseas institutions with selected qualifications. Clarification on accepted results may be obtained from the Scholarships Management through the student's appointed Counsellor.
3. Scholarship application can only be made once for the particular level of study, at any one time and must be made at the point of enrolment, before the application deadline. Late application or re-application will not be entertained.
4. All 2027 scholarships are subject to the following eligibility criteria:
   i. Studies conducted at Taylor's University, Malaysia only;
   ii. Registered students at Taylor's University;
   iii. The programme and intake offered as stated in the Letter of Offer only; and
   iv. Does not include a period of study at overseas partner institutions including student exchange, except where fee is payable to Taylor's University (where applicable).
5. All scholarships are only applicable for students progressing to a higher qualification from the current highest achieved qualification commencing from semester 1 without any credit transfer (except for transfers from Diploma/Advanced Diploma to Degree). Clarification on exceptions may be obtained from the Scholarships Management through the student's appointed Counsellor.
6. Applicants are only allowed to use actual results to apply for the scholarship, but the scholarship is conditional upon meeting the minimum course entry requirements or the conditions attached to the letter of offer.
7. Applicants must be certain of their preferred intake and/or programme during the point of scholarship application. Should applicants defer or change to a different programme and/or intake of the same year or different year during the processing period, the application will be voided.
8. Applicants are required to apply for the scholarship before the application deadlines. Any late or incomplete application will not be accepted. No appeals will be entertained.
9. Scholarship application deadlines may be revised at the sole discretion of Taylor's University without prior notice. Scholarship application deadlines can be found on the Taylor's University website.
10. The scholarships are applicable to the programme and intake granted. Any changes to the intake and/or programme of study that result in the modification of programme title and/or duration of studies and/or intake commencement will result in immediate termination of the scholarship. For special consideration, the recipient shall correspond in writing immediately with the Scholarships Management to notify of the circumstance. Any approval for exceptions or special considerations is at the absolute discretion of the Scholarships Management and is not guaranteed. Where changes are made without prior approval, Taylor's University reserves the right to withdraw the scholarship, and the recipient will be required to repay the total scholarship amount disbursed to him/her in full. All decisions made by Taylor's University are final and no further appeals shall be entertained.
11. Recipients are expected to provide any document(s) as requested by the Scholarships Management at any given time within the stipulated deadline communicated to facilitate any requirements deemed necessary by Taylor's University. Failure to do so will result in the scholarship being revoked and the recipient to repay the scholarship amount disbursed to date in full.
12. Recipients shall join the academic course at the given start date. Failure to do so will result in immediate termination of the scholarship.
13. The duration of the scholarship is up to the standard programme duration or until the completion of study period specified by Taylor's University, whichever is earlier. No extensions are allowed.
14. The scholarship is a fee waiver; it is not exchangeable for cash, is non-transferable and non-refundable and the manner in which the awarded amount is disbursed will be decided by the Scholarships Management. Any requests to amend the quantum disbursement will not be entertained.
15. The scholarship only covers the tuition fees and for avoidance of doubt does not cover fees such as the International Student Annual Fee, EMGS Visa Application Fee, International Student Charge, Hospitalisation and Surgical Insurance Fee, EMGS Renewal Fee or any other Visa-related Fee.
16. The scholarship only covers subjects enrolled for the first time (first attempt) in the letter of offer. Retake of module or repeat of subject will not be covered by the scholarship, and the fees chargeable for any retake or repeat will be borne by the recipients.
17. All fees which are on the account of the students should be paid by the stipulated deadline. Refusal to do so either when awaiting the scholarship outcome announcement and/or throughout the duration of study will be subjected to terms of the institution policy which includes and is not limited to barring from classes and may result in the scholarship application being disqualified or scholarship being terminated and full fees being charged to the applicant/recipient.
18. Recipients are entitled to only one (1) type of scholarship/bursary/award/waiver/discount at any one time including sponsorships from external institutions/bodies. Recipients must inform the Scholarships Management of any scholarships or sponsorship currently held or awarded at a later date. In the event a scholarship recipient accepts any external scholarship/sponsorship, the disbursement of the scholarship awarded by Taylor's University will cease immediately. Should the recipient later choose to withdraw from or lose eligibility for the external scholarship/sponsorship for any reason, the original scholarship from Taylor's University will not be reinstated.
19. If the scholarship offer is not accepted by the given deadline in the letter of offer, it will be automatically withdrawn and voided. No appeals will be entertained.
20. By accepting this offer, recipients understand and accept the responsibility of being an exemplary student ambassador for Taylor's University. Recipients must recognise that his/her behaviour and general conduct must, at all times, be above reproach and comply with all existing rules, regulations, requirements and policies of Taylor's University. Recipients should not be involved, engaged in, or participate in any political, illegal or unlawful activity as a recipient of the scholarship whether within or outside the University premises. Failure to comply will result in immediate termination of scholarship and possible suspension in line with Institution policy.
21. Recipients agree to act in an ambassadorial capacity, to provide student profiles or testimonials, interviews, advertisements, photographs, or any other publicity-related activities if requested, and to attend scholarship or recruitment events as required for Taylor's University.
22. By accepting this award, recipients are expected to join the Scholar's Club and attend any Scholar's Club activities/events organised by the Scholarships Management and Scholar's Committee during the duration of their scholarship, attendance is a requirement under this scholarship.
23. Recipients also agree to indemnify and hold Taylor's University harmless of and from any and all demands, claims, liabilities or actions of any kind whatsoever during their period of study at Taylor's University.
24. In the event the recipient withdraws from the programme, is suspended or terminated by Taylor's University at any point of time before the completion of the programme, the scholarship shall be automatically terminated. However, should the recipient withdraw from the programme due to medical reasons, his/her scholarship may be retained, subject to the absolute discretion of the Scholarships Management.
25. Taylor's University will be entitled to terminate the scholarship at any time, by immediate notice to the recipient in writing, in the event of:
   i. misconduct, whether in connection with his/her study or otherwise;
   ii. failure to make such progress in his/her study as is considered satisfactory;
   iii. circumstances, such as illness, arising which, with the university's agreement, would render it impossible for the recipient to complete his/her scholarship satisfactorily or prevent the purpose of the scholarship from being fulfilled;
   iv. dismissal, for any reason, from the recipient's host university (if on student exchange programme);
   v. breach of any local Malaysian law and practices;
   vi. conviction of bribery, in line with the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Act, the current scholarship will be rescinded, and the recipient will be banned from applying for any Taylor's financial aid and discounts for a period of up to five years;
   vii. failure to comply with the conditions of his/her visa (if international student); and viii. the discovery that the recipient has submitted fraudulent documentation.
26. In the event of such termination, Taylor's University shall have no further obligation to the recipient, and the recipient shall be bound to repay the amount that has been paid/waived to him/her under the scholarship, unless:
   i. the termination is a result of his/her ill health and this has been certified by a registered medical practitioner; and
   ii. Taylor's University has exercised its discretion to exempt the recipient from this condition.
27. No delay or forbearance by Taylor's University to enforce any of its rights and remedies for breach by the recipient of any of these terms and conditions shall in any way affect or prejudice Taylor's University rights or remedies in respect of such breach, nor will Taylor's University rights and remedies in respect of any other or subsequent breach of these terms and conditions by the recipient be affected or prejudiced.
28. Recipients are required to maintain satisfactory academic results as outlined by the minimum CGPA/score/grades specified in their scholarship offer letter throughout the standard programme duration. Failure to do so may result in the termination of the scholarship by Taylor's University at the discretion of the Scholarship Management, taking into consideration due process as per the Scholarship policy.
29. Any breach of the scholarship condition(s) is treated seriously and if the recipient believes to have breached a condition whether intentionally or unintentionally, the recipient should contact the Scholarships Management immediately to discuss the situation. Recipients are urged to take prompt action to resolve any misunderstanding that may arise as a result of the breach, accidental or otherwise.
30. All decisions made by Taylor's University are final and no further appeals shall be entertained.
31. Taylor's University maintain a range of social media platforms intended to facilitate interaction among scholars and alumni. Comments and participation in discussions are encouraged, with an emphasis on open and meaningful debate. All users are expected to observe appropriate standards of conduct and uphold the principles of respectful, polite, and constructive discourse at all times.
32. Recipients agree to be contacted by Taylor's University after graduation to be involved in interviews, advertisements, photography or other publicity-related activities for marketing purposes.
33. The terms and conditions of scholarship may be modified and amended from time to time as deemed appropriate by Taylor's University and the current version can be found on the Taylor's University website.
34. Upon accepting this scholarship, recipients are deemed to have accepted all terms and conditions stipulated here.
35. All information including personal data provided in the programme and scholarship application may be used by or on behalf of Taylor's University in the following manner and is not limited to:
   i. processing of scholarship application, collection of feedback, communicate details of events, academic programmes and marketing information, and for any other purposes as required by Taylor's University; and
   ii. periodical audit by Taylor's University with regards to any information provided should the scholarship be administered, which includes and is not limited to grade reviews, semester status, and utilisation of data for institution needs.

   All data collected will be handled in strict accordance with the PDPA guidelines as per organisation policy.
36. Effective 1 July 2025, a 6% Service Tax will be imposed on non-Malaysian citizens, applicable to all fees and charges related to education services, except International Security Deposit and EMGS application fees. Fees shown in the Fee Schedule are exclusive of the 6% Service Tax. The Service Tax rate and taxable fee components are subject to change as determined by government regulations.
37. In accordance with prevailing Malaysian tax regulations, Service Tax (if applicable) shall be imposed on the amount of taxable fees and charges, after the deduction of any scholarships, bursaries, awards, or discounts. All non-Malaysian citizens shall bear this tax liability in full. Recipients are advised to factor in the applicable Service Tax when calculating the net amount payable to Taylor's University.

TAYLOR'S POSTGRADUATE BURSARIES

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. The bursary offered by Taylor's University is subject to the terms and conditions. The offer to any students is at the absolute discretion of Taylor's University, and no further appeals shall be entertained.
2. The applicant must meet the minimum programme entry requirements, including the bursary requirements as stipulated by Taylor's University.
3. The bursary listed is applicable for 2027 intakes only and are subject to availability on a first-come, first-served basis. The institution reserves the right to decide on the number of bursaries to be awarded, as it comes with limited quota.
4. Any bursary request for any intakes must be submitted with a completed bursary application form. The completed bursary application form must be submitted during programme enrolment and approved prior to the commencement of semester one. Any late or incomplete application will not be accepted.
5. The bursary is applicable to the programme and intake granted. Any changes to the intake and/or programme of study that result in the modification of programme title and/or duration of studies and/or intake commencement will result in immediate termination of the bursary.
6. The bursary is available for new registration only. Students who are currently enrolled or were previously enrolled in any semester at Taylor's University are not eligible for the offer.
7. Should a student change intake (Deferred intake) to the following year, the older scheme will not be applicable and will result in termination of the bursary.
8. All 2027 bursaries are subject to the following eligibility criteria:
   i. Studies conducted at Taylor's University, Malaysia only;
   ii. Registered students at Taylor's University;
   iii. The programme and intake offered as stated in the Letter of Offer only; and
   iv. Does not include a period of study at overseas partner institutions including student exchange, except where fee is payable to Taylor's University (where applicable).
9. The bursary is applicable for Malaysian students only, except applicants for Alumni and TEG Student Bursary.
10. Students are entitled to only one (1) type of scholarship/award/bursary/waiver/discount at any one time, including sponsorship from other institutions/bodies. The one with the highest quantum will automatically apply.
11. Any false declaration, omission, or misrepresentation in the application may result in immediate disqualification or revocation of the bursary, and the recipient may be required to refund any amount disbursed.
12. Alumni status for bursary applies only when programme admission is based on an academic transcript issued by Taylor's Education Group.
13. The individual bursary is subject to the following:
    a) Each bursary is subject to the eligibility criteria outlined in this brochure. For bursary-specific terms and conditions, please refer to the respective bursary application form.
    b) In order to secure the postgraduate bursary, full settlement of the fees for the first semester (or first block) is required prior to the commencement of studies.
14. All tuition fee deductions will be made automatically by the system in the long semester(s) of the programme, up to the standard programme duration, and up to the semester's standard tuition fee only.
15. The bursary is capped at the maximum deduction, subject to quantum awarded. For the avoidance of doubt, in semesters where the tuition fees are lower than the awarded quantum, deductions shall be limited to the semester's tuition fees only. Any remaining balance cannot be claimed, refunded, or carried forward under any circumstances.
16. The bursary granted is strictly non-transferable, non-refundable, and not exchangeable for cash. It is applicable to the named student only and strictly not be transferred to any other individual, including siblings.
17. The bursary only covers the tuition fees and for avoidance of doubt does not cover fees such as the International Student Annual Fee, EMGS Visa Application Fee, International Student Charge, Hospitalisation and Surgical Insurance Fee, EMGS Renewal Fee or any other Visa-related Fee. It does not cover other non-tuition fees which varies by programmes such as uniform, goggles, lab fees, certification fees, assignment fee, software subscription fee, external fees, transportation or accommodation related fees, etc.
